Carta de presentación

I am a young adult that is highly motivated, adaptive and responsible when it comes to the job and task I participate in I give 100%.

I enjoy a challenge and if there is any hardship I would love to conquer it at all costs,

I believe that organization and self-improvement is key to be able to grow as a person, which is why I constantly read and go to the gym so I can better myself both mentally and physically.

Killer questions

Tell us about your experience of working on the phone, please.

Very little, although I am very capable of learning fast and my adaptive skills to any situation gives me an advantage in any endeavour.
